

Lleida, 12 January 2016

Relevant event: Lleida.net names Pedro Antonio Vega Pérez Director of LATAM Operations

Pursuant to the provisions of the Spanish Alternative Investment Market Circular 9/2010, we are hereby notifying the market of the following information relating to LLEIDANETWORKS SERVEIS TELEMÀTICS, S.A. (hereinafter, "Lleida.net" or the "Company").

Over the last three years, Lleida.net has developed a significant business growth plan which has culminated in the company's listing in the MAB in October 2015. As part of this strategy, Guillermo Martínez, who has been the International Vice-President up until now, has actively participated in the consolidation of the certified communications services and the international expansion. Having reached these milestones, Guillermo Martínez is leaving Lleida.net to work on other projects which has led to the addition of Pedro Antonio Vega Pérez as the new Director of LATAM Operations. Pedro Antonio Vega Pérez holds a bachelor's degree in economics and business from the Complutense in Madrid, a master's degree in business management and marketing from Uned, a master's degree in economic and financial management from UOC and a bachelor's degree in advertising and public relations. Over the last twelve years, he has worked at 11888 SCT S.A. (Hibu Spain, formerly known as CTI-Páginas Amarillas which belonged to the Telefónica Group and was listed on the Stock Exchange until its buyout) where he was Director of Operations from 2003 to 2015, Operations Manager for Chile from 2012 to 2014, Operations Manager for Hibu Argentina from 2012 to 2013, and Country Manager for Hibu Italy from 2005 to 2013.

With this addition, Lleida.net is reinforcing its international strategy and special commitment to the LATAM market.

Sincerely, Lleida, 12 January 2016

Francisco Sapena Soler
CEO of Lleida.net

(This is a translated copy of the Spanish version which remains the authentic).