SALES DESCRIPTION BY BUSINESS LINE

ICX WHOLESALE solutions 33%

> SMS solutions 19%

SaaS sales account for 48% of total sales, compared to the 40% they constituted in the H1 of 2022. The decrease in SMS sales has allowed for an escalation in the relative share of contracting sales, reaching 19% in H1.

H1 2023

DESCRIPTION OF SALES BY GEOGRAPHIC AL AREA

The decline in wholesale SMS sales has led to a shift in the geographical sales mix. Domestic sales this semester account for 55%, compared to the 45% they represented in 2022.

Number of clients

In the second quarter, Lleida.net has achieved a noteworthy 18% growth in its client base, encompassing those recipients to whom invoices have been sent, compared to the corresponding period in 2022. The customer profile has been altered, with a rise in clients opting for standard SaaS products characterised by lower consumption levels. On the other hand, the proportion of clients who are Telecom operators with higher SMS consumption has decreased.

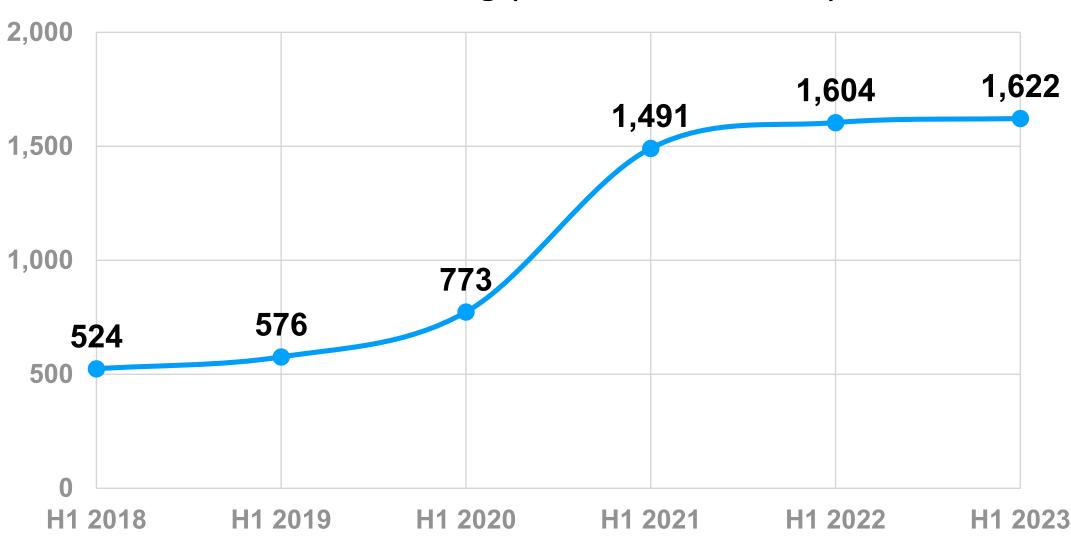

The average invoice amount for clients has decreased due to this shift in the customer profile, indicating decreased dependency on major clients.

EVOLUTION OF SALES CONTRACTING SERVICES

Contracting (thousands of euros)

Contracting sales reach €1.6M, bolstered by the sales of standard circuits that clients can individually configure. The group's strategy is focused on generating a larger number of standard users who require fewer technical resources and offer higher profitability.

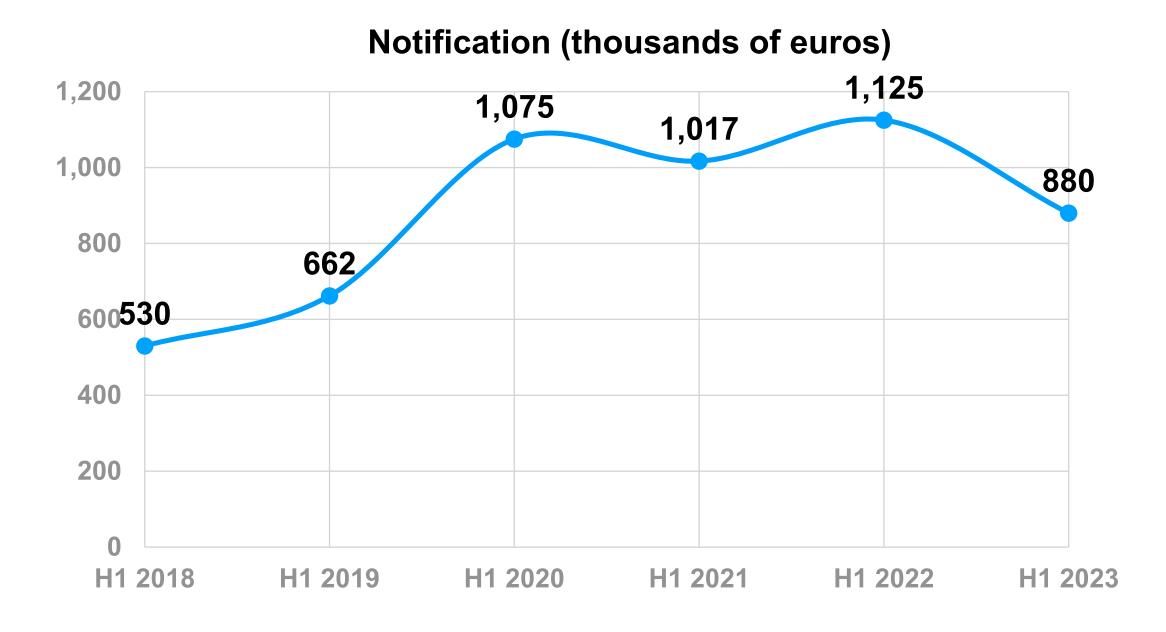

Our commercial strategy is targeted at industry-specific verticals, providing them with standard Click & Sign solutions. This approach allows us to streamline processes across various transactions. This gradual approach has a positive effect on our sales figures. The simplicity and cost-effectiveness of these processes compared to custombuilt solutions contribute to this trend. The anticipated growth rates are notably high.

EVOLUTION OF SALES NOTIFICATION SERVICES

Due to outstanding debt payments, the decrease in the notification business line is attributed to the suspension of services to Correos Postales de Colombia, 472. As of the current date, the service remains suspended.

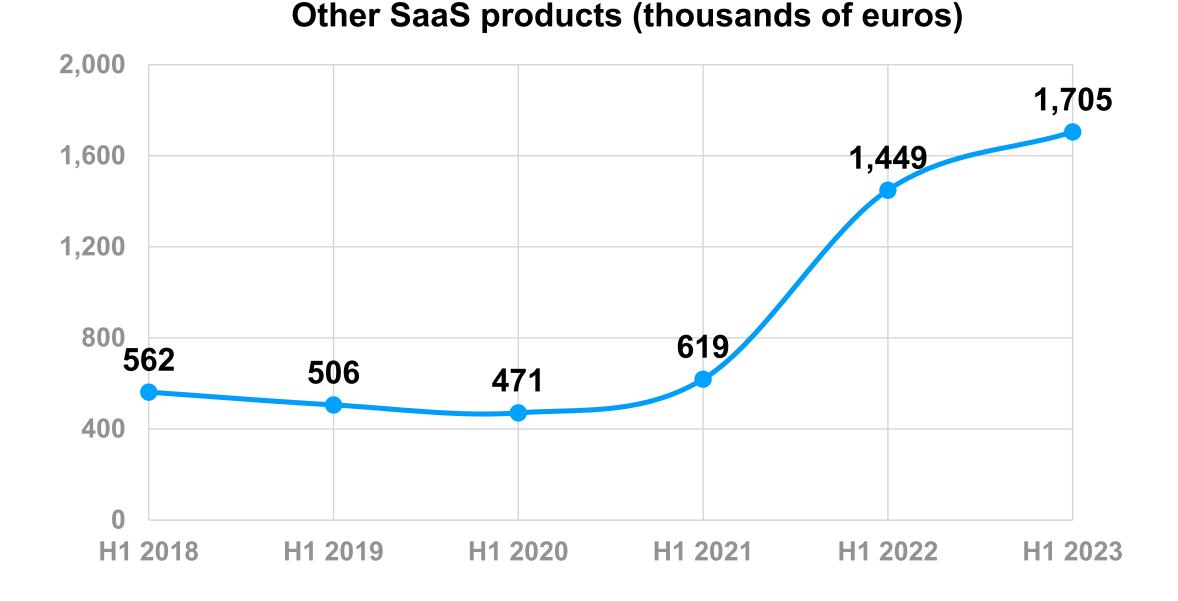

We observed a decline of €124k for the quarter, less than the typical quarterly usage of postal services. This decrease results from acquiring new commercial accounts in Latin America, particularly Peru and Colombia.

EVOLUTION OF SALES OF OTHER SAAS PRODUCTS

Other SaaS includes service licences, email, time stamps, phone numbers, and identity verification transactions. This quarter saw an increase of 18%, amounting to €256K, thanks to the renewals of recurrent customers and the acquisition of new accounts. Renewals now involve a shift in billing approach, encompassing a portion of SaaS billing, which will progressively be integrated into the subscription or notification line in the forthcoming quarters.

EVOLUTION OF SALES OF THE WHOLESALE SMS

SMS Wholesale (thousands of euros)

The Wholesale market maintains the decline observed in Q1, with reduced sales units and termination prices. During this quarter, there was a 48% decrease, resulting in a €1.151M reduction in revenue. This is primarily attributed to the destinations where traffic was directed, featuring termination prices lower than those in 2022.

EVOLUTION OF SALES OF COMMERCIAL SMS

COMMERCIAL SMS (thousands of euros)

SMS sales saw a 4% QoQ decrease, amounting to €34K. This rebounded from Q1 2023, driven by prevacation communications from national clients. In Q2 2022, following an outstanding year with 36% YoY growth, the growth momentum didn't continue in 2023. Nonetheless, it remains above the 2021 figures

GROSS MARGIN (thousand of euros)

The gross margin stands at 58% relative to sales, driven by the increased prominence of SaaS sales. There's a 5% decrease in absolute figures, stemming from a 17% drop in sales.

The decrease in Wholesale sales drives the decline in absolute units.

For the quarter, the gross margin on sales reached 56%, 5 points higher than the 2022 figures, influenced by the standard product sales strategy.

The drive for process and personnel optimisation led to a 4.9% decline in the average workforce for the semester compared to the same period in 2022. Custom-made projects require the most personnel-intensive efforts The long-term strategy is to progressively diminish revenue from these processes while simultaneously boosting standard product offerings. This approach will unlock resources for the development of new functionalities, enhancing efficiency.

Increases in absolute amounts stem from the salary hikes implemented at the beginning of the fiscal year.

PERSONNEL EXPENSES

We have witnessed a reduction in external service expenses this quarter amounting to€87K. Our comprehensive analysis of the trade has bolstered this decline shows we attend, explicitly focusing on expenditures that offer minimal short-term value. We've adjusted our event participation strategy to focus on events orchestrated by the company, facilitating the convergence of potential clients within specific verticals. Consequently, our presence in trade shows with standalone, extensive booths has been scaled back.

EXTERNAL SERVICES EXPENDITURES

Applying a criterion of maximum prudence, the income recorded in the profit and loss account for 2023 remains at 5% of sales in line with 2022.

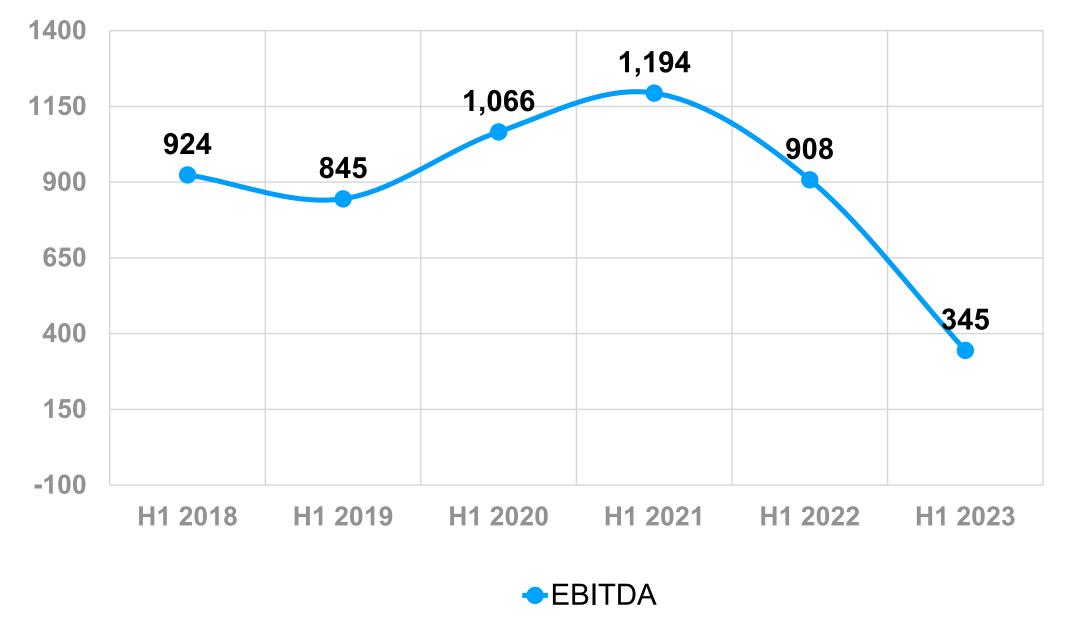

The decrease in absolute figures is attributed to the 17% drop in sales. The Group remains dedicated to its R&D endeavours, primarily refining our standard products to appeal to a broader range of potential customers.
